To those who vote, we salute you.

But for some, casting a ballot isn't enough. They are America's poll workers, and they make our votes count.

Your polling place needs your smiling face.

Each year, polling places fall short of the two million volunteers needed to make democracy work. You can ensure that America's voice is heard loud and clear. Join a new generation of poll workers. Help your elections officials avoid a staffing shortage. Protect our democracy.

Learn. Earn. Do.

As a volunteer poll worker, you'll learn about the great American political experience while helping neighbors vote. It's a great leadership opportunity (and a chance to earn some cash).

Poll workers play a strictly non-partisan role in the electoral process.

Each election Day is a full — and rewarding — day for a poll worker. You'll check voters' identification, issue ballots, answer questions, and assist voters. You'll make a difference.

Most precincts require a pre-election training session. Responsibilities, requirements and compensation vary.
